3. USING THE WEBSITE

3.1. Use of the Website as a buyer

Use of the Website does not require registration; the Website and the advertisements published on it are available to anyone.

Use of the Website is free of charge. On the Website, users can view published real estate advertisements based on their geographical location and other search criteria.

3.2. Use of the Website as an advertiser

Only registered users who have paid for their chosen advertising package when placing the advertisement may publish advertisements on the Website.

To place an advertisement, the Advertiser must complete the following 4 steps:

Step 1: description, basic information, such as year of manufacture, model, price

The advertisement must contain a brief description of the advertised property, presenting it in detail, and the text of the advertisement must refer specifically to this. An advertisement may only contain one property. Exceptions to this rule are cases where the Advertiser advertises several properties together as a package at a given price or offers them in exchange. In all other cases, the Service Provider will moderate the advertisement and request the Advertiser to advertise the properties listed in the advertisement separately on the Website. It is prohibited to place links to other advertising or auction sites in the advertisement. However, the Advertiser may place links to other types of sites in the advertisement, provided that they relate to the advertised service.

An advertisement uploaded by a given Advertiser may only appear once on the Website. If, for any reason, the Advertiser decides to repost the real estate advertisement, they are required to delete the previous advertisement with the same content. It is prohibited to post multiple advertisements with the same content on the site!

Only advertisements for real estate classified in the specified real estate category for vacation purposes are permitted on the Website. In the case of advertisements for other types of properties, the Service Provider is entitled to delete the advertisement. In the event of deletion of an advertisement, the Service Provider is entitled to retain the advertising fee as a penalty.

It is prohibited to advertise services on the Website whose distribution is contrary to law.

Step 2. Uploading photos

It is prohibited to upload images to the Website that are not consistent with the title or description of the advertisement. It is also prohibited to upload images that are inappropriate, illegal, or pornographic.

Advertisers may not manipulate images uploaded to advertisements, place advertisements, illustrations or other advertising on them, or place frames or captions that highlight them, nor may they place images with such content (e.g., logos advertising promotions or guarantees) in the advertisement. The Service Provider may place its own logo or watermark on images uploaded for advertisements.

Step 3. Providing advertisement details

The advertisement details must include the price of the property, its location, and detailed information about its condition and characteristics.

Advertisers may only have one account, unless otherwise agreed between the Service Provider and the Advertiser. If a user is proven to be committing fraud (for example, attempting to register with multiple email addresses in order to place free advertisements), the Service Provider will request that the user cease their unlawful activity. If the Advertiser fails to do so within 2 days, the Service Provider may delete the account in question.

If the Advertiser displays advertisements on the advertising space made available to them without the written consent of the Service Provider that are detrimental to a competitor of the Website or otherwise harm the business interests of the Service Provider, the Service Provider shall be entitled to remove the advertisement without prior notice to the Advertiser. The Service Provider shall not publish and shall be entitled to remove any Advertisements that misleadingly give the impression that the Service Provider supports the sale of the property advertised in the Advertisement in any way.

Step 4. Provision of contact details (e-mail address, telephone number)

It is prohibited to mislead buyers and therefore it is prohibited to provide false contact details in the advertisement!

Step 5. Placing an advertisement

After providing all the necessary information, you can place your advertisement by selecting an advertising package.

Processing the order, conclusion of the contract

Orders are processed in two steps. You can place your order at any time. You will first receive an automatic confirmation of the order, which only records the fact that your order has been received via the Website, but this confirmation does not qualify as an acceptance of your offer. If you notice that your details (e.g., name, delivery address, phone number, etc.) are incorrectly indicated in the automatic confirmation email, then you have an obligation to notify us of this fact, along with providing the correct data, by email without delay. If you do not receive an automatic confirmation email within 24 hours of placing your order, please contact us, as it is possible that your order was not received by our system due to technical reasons.

After sending your offer, the Service Provider will confirm your offer in a second email. The contract will be concluded at the time when this confirmation email sent by the Service Provider becomes available to you in your email system (second confirmation).
